Fatherhood Skills Workshop

A seven session workshop led by Children's Home & Aid Fatherhood Coalition Coordinator, Corey Love-Jones. This fun, short, and useful workshop focuses on five key skills of effective fatherhood. Sessions are offered weekly on Zoom from 4:30-5:30 pm, Now-Feb. 23rd. Join anytime & make up missed sessions later.

Black Fatherhood Series

Black Fatherhood: Trials & Tribulations, Testimony & Triumph is a compelling documentary & companion book by Dr. Khalid A. White in which he confronts the dishonest stereotype of the irresponsible black man.

- Join Dr. Khalid White on Zoom for a screening & discussion on his documentary. February 17th, 11am-Noon. (Open to all)
- Join a Dad's Book Club session! Book Club discussion will be hosted by Advancing Fathers Program staff & will center on Dr. White's book Black Fatherhood: Trials & Tribulations, Testimony & Triumph. Register for one of four opportunities on Zoom between Feb. 20th & March 13th (Open to all Dads)

Dad Talks:What Moms Really Want from Dads!

A brief & to the point inspirational talk that can be viewed from anywhere! Join us to hear from Ernestine Brown as she shares what she's learned from Moms about what they really want from the fathers of their children. Two opportunities on Zoom: February 22nd, 11am and 7pm

Build A Winning Team Workshop

A seven week workshop for moms seeking to improve their co-parenting relationship with the fathers of their children. Facilitator Ernestine Brown will be joined by special speakers throughout this workshop series as moms reflect on their own experiences & influences on their parenting styles.
Tuesdays 6:00-7:30pm, March 7th-April 18th on Zoom
